About This Game

Relive dark footage recorded from the perspective of multiple characters in this unique first person horror. Each character has had an alternate experience in different locations, but they all have something in common which connects them. Take control of a young female and relive these moments through found footage to uncover the sinister link between the strangers.

The game's distinctive VHS effect and colour scheme delivers a realistic 1980s feel as the player progresses through different characters and moments in time, with hidden clues and messages that can only be discovered by re-playing the levels. Each location has a different twist and new enemies to encounter; some are aggressive, while others lurk in the shadows waiting for an opportunity to strike.

Use light to reveal what is hidden beneath the cover of darkness, and use the camera as a guide to expose what the human eye cannot perceive.

What it all comes down to is character, a word with multiple meanings. Characters that one can see, feel, relate to, and cherish. Character as an attribute, that succeeds in instilling a specific mood or personality. What will ultimately be the factor in choosing to partake in this visual novel will depend on how much "character" means to you. Short, but sweet. Insufficient, but promising. Whatever drawbacks arise, the sweet sensation of bubbly optimism and the togetherness of human empathy lessens the pain of all that goes wrong. Lingua Fleur: Lily could be such an experience.

- + Great character-building/character chemistry
- + Soundtrack is phenomenal in its mood-setting
- + Art is impressive for the scale of the game

- Narrative themes feel too dispersed, not fully developed
- Clich\u00e9s are plentiful within story, character types
- Few too many typos with English translation

Read the full review at https://www.keengamer.com/article/21102_lingua-fleur-lily-review.. just don't buy this.. Belka did nothing wrong. An outstanding and innovative experience that is possibly the worlds first example of a new genre of Virtual Reality cinematography.

A narrative experience- no interaction- that is throughly gripping and a preview of what to expect in the next 4-5 years. What is not real-time now- will soon be full realtime interactive. This will set a few imaginations alight as to the possibilities and sheer scope of what future VR worlds can and will be.

A must purchase. Look foward to episode Two.

And props must be given for cross-platform support for both VIVE and OCULUS. One of the better Nancy Drew games. Keeps you guessing til the end.

Puzzles are great. Characters were fun. Animations are at their best for a ND game.

Telling Ned you don't love him is a pretty satisfying dialogue option.

If you like ND, then get this one.. Really funny Emotes. This emote pack is only really for someone who has a mic or else it defeats the purpose of having the other emotes to communicate with for non-mic players. But aside from that worth it. Well the game is so fun when play with friends (in the same place, we can laugh together) and it's cool because it's free, BUT seriously so sad if there is NO online multiplayer for this game. I hope there is a new feature about online multiplayer, and oh ya I don't know why, whenever I chose MITO ARENA, it's broken or ya crashed.. The game launched earlier today and bought it almost as soon as it came out (Timezone permitting)

The game as it is now, is playable and definetly has a chance of becoming a great game. I hope the developers continue to work on it.

Just be warned that as of today (08-02-2019), it's not possible to save your game so hopefully that will come soon.

Literally can't feel my right arm after spending hours upon hours trying to perfect Jungle Joyride in Unleashed Project, three days in a row to no success.

Fantastic game. The dude's voice is a little unclear. shoulda have subtitle

Apart from that everything is great. 4V10. - One of the worst shooter games I have ever played. Graphics are beautiful but the sniping sucks tremendously.

I was very excited to originally play this as it was my first ever Ghost Warrior and the game looked phenomenal...but when entering the game I truly realised why it was such a cheap price. The sniping mechanics of this game as god awful & truly not fun whatsoever. The story didn't really seem interesting whatsoever and if anything just an A-B-C objective. Just go here, go there etc.

I am disappointed but I guess not every game can be amazing. - The graphics were phenomenal for this game but the gameplay itself was not. Don't recommend.. What a total waste of money. Especially for Oceanic players.. A game made by kids?

Awesome.. The setting's realization is awesome.

Plays like one of those old-school brawler games. Superb. Nothing wrong here.

The developers care much about their game. They patch often. Add new stuff. Fix bugs.

Commendable Kickstarter Project.

Controllers are working.

Sound is awesome.

Everything is awesome.

Beans.

Glad they made this game.

Awesome ! BEANS!!!! AWESOME!!!!!!!!!!!!!! 10V10 Gameplay. I haven't finished the game yet but I can say that this is a good game.
